Spot signs of a wrong bra size

- Hand-wash your bras, especially those that contain an underwire. If you do use a washing machine, select a "delicate" or "hand wash" cycle and fasten the clasps to prevent snagging.
- Use a mild detergent and lukewarm water. Avoid extreme heat or highly concentrated detergents.
- Do not put your bra in the dryer. Line drying is best.
- Keep like colors together in washing.
- Wash your bra after each use to help reduce discoloring.

Spot signs of a wrong bra size

You might be wearing the wrong bra size if:

- the cups wrinkle.
- you spill over the top or side of the cups.
- the center of the bra doesn't rest flat against your breastbone.
- the band rides up your back – if you can fit more than two fingers between the band and your back, it's too loose.

Instantly slim, smooth and shape your problem areas with shapewear.
